

I Am Shark.

In the day I roam the reef,
But at night I rest, lounging in my coral-filled
cave,
And when I rest I dream.

I dream I am the fastest shark, Darting through the water at a top speed of sixty miles per hour,
Water rushing past my gills.

I dream my tail is as deadly as a Marlin, Propelling myself out of the water to the amazement
of my unsuspecting prey.

I dream my head is shaped like a mallet, recognised by fish who fear me.

I dream I am unpredictable,
First I will be friendly and then I will turn back around and bite you.

I dream I have distinctive black-tipped fin,
And I prefer shallow, tropical waters.

I dream I live in deep waters, with few of my kind left,
And I am only a shadow in the darkness.

And I tell you my dreams so you can dream with me.
