British Values

Jayne Neveu

Headteacher

What are 'British values'?

The government's definitions of 'British values' are outlined in two documents:

Prevent Strategy and Promoting fundamental British values as part of SMSC in schools

Reviewed September 2022-23

Democracy	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Encourage respect for democracy and support for participation in the democratic processes, including respect for the basis on which the law is made and applied in England. • Develop an understanding of how citizens can influence decision-making through the democratic process.

How we teach traditional British Values:

Democracy:

- Pupils have the chance to stand for the School Council
- Pupils vote for class representatives on the School Council, head boy/head girl and House Captains
- Debates during curriculum subjects
- Promotion of respect as a Christian value

The Rule of Law:

- Children are expected to live by the rule of the Bible that reflect our values as a Christian school
- Pupils are expected to keep class and school rules that aim to keep children safe, maintain good order that enables learning to take place, and to be fair.
- Visits from the local police to help children understand the importance of keeping the law and educating them about road safety and keeping safe.
- Pupils are expected to play sport by sticking to the rules of the game and obeying the umpire.

Liberty:

- Pupil Voice.
- School Council.
- The opportunity to initiate ideas including raising money for charities.
- The opportunity to express preferences and give opinions.
- Learning about War and the British Empire.
- Internet Safety and Well-being

Respect for others:

- Keeping to the rules in school that promote good behaviour
- Promotion of Christian Values through Prayer Space and worship.
- Anti-bullying policy and procedures.
- Equality policy and practice.
- Sporting behaviour in competitions.
- Inter-house competitions.
- Open-the- Book.
- Inclusion of all regardless of ability or origins.

- Promotion of good manners inside and outside of school.
- Sharing of the school prayer
- Modelling by adults.

Tolerance for those different faiths and beliefs:

- Teaching of RE.
- Acts of worship.
- Assemblies reflecting the beliefs of others.
- Visitors from other cultures/ beliefs within Britain.
- Rights of parents to withdraw pupils from RE and /or worship.
- Open the Book worship and prayers.
- Promotion of idea that everyone is special
- Festivals

Promotion of Britishness

- Supporting Britain and British sports players in events such as the Olympic.
- Commemoration of key political/historical dates such as Guy Fawkes night
- Learning traditional British hymns.(Subject to religious beliefs and parents right to withdraw children from worship)
- Encouraging children to try foods/dance/music that represent and reflect modern British culture

- Encouraging pupils to make contributions to their local and wider communities.
