

I will definitely not sky-dive into an active volcano

I will continuously avoid my brothers if I can but they always come in my room

I will not eat a parsnip even if it comes with a roast dinner

I will definitely make sure to support and celebrate my friends

I won't compete in a marathon against a lion

I will forever treat everyone equally

I will not be persuaded to sit in a bathtub full of snakes

I will love my family and embarrass my siblings forever
