

I will always sing random songs in the shower.

I will never try and compete against angry in biting competition.

I will always and forever listen to other peoples opinion.

I will never jump into a frozen lake full of frozen fish.

I will always dance whilst singing random that I made up.

I will never go on a trip to Mexico with bears.

I will continually smile in the sun right after the rain.

I will never try and jump off the top of Mount Everest with floppy arms and wobbly legs.
